

"DISCOVERY" Workshops

Our Discovery two-workshop package offers those in career transition the opportunity to explore and discover what you really want to do, what you really enjoy, what you are good at or even what you want to learn...next. What makes you unique and why would someone want to hire you? Create that road map to help you be successful. And connect with others who are in career transition.

Whether you are looking for an encore opportunity or an Encore career, join us for these dynamic, interactive workshops facilitated by experts in career exploration.

Workshop Details

Discovering Myself - Thursday, December 8, 10:00-12:00pm

As you explore Encore opportunities, self knowledge and self understanding are crucial. Through self assessment exercises, individually and in a group, begin to explore your career strengths, interests, your creativity and your "core". You will learn how to apply self-understanding to help you as you move toward what's next.

--Workshop presented by Joan Ryan, attorney, executive coach and expert in personality, communication and negotiation. Joan works with self-awareness, self-observation, mindfulness and facilitation techniques. She has taught worldwide for the past 12 years, helping others to understand themselves and how they relate to others is central to all of her work.

Creating Your Encore Plan - Tuesday, December 13, 10:00-12:00pm

Just as having a map helps you arrive at your travel destination, having a well thought out plan will help guide you in finding Encore opportunities. In this workshop you will develop your own individual plan which includes marketing and networking tactics. You will come away with a document that you can use as a practical tool in your search for Encore work.

--Workshop presented by Cissie Klavens who has over 25 years experience as a visionary entrepreneur, executive search professional and career advisor. Cissie's work focuses on guiding people through a process to help them recognize their value, define the "top of their mountain" and find satisfaction in their work life. In addition to being on the board of Discovering What's Next, Cissie and her husband, George, co-facilitate a Transition Talk group for people who want to discuss their concerns as they begin to think about how to plan for this next stage of life after 50. Cissie has been included on the list of top ten Executive Coaches in Boston.

Package price for 2 workshops is $100 total; special discount for Summit 2011 attendees. Register now!
