

Dear Friend and Supporter:

You're receiving this email because you've attended our programs and/or supported us in the past. You may not think about it this way, but you're already a trailblazer. Take this opportunity to lead the way again-for you and for others-by making a donation today to Discovering What's Next.

Whatever we thought would be true at this stage of our lives (and, let's face it, most of us didn't think much about it) has been turned on its head.

A spate of recent studies confirms what we increasingly know from our own experience or that of friends, colleagues and neighbors:

- People feel unprepared for the future.
- The workplace is changing.
- Retirement is a moving target.

A growing movement of people across the country is blazing a trail by opting for change. And a few organizations, like Discovering What's Next, are working hard to supply the tools and advance the cause. We are redefining the contribution we can make as individuals and the value we can create for our communities in the second half of our lives.

The challenge now is *What can we do to enable these changes?

This is THE MISSION of Discovering What's Next. As one of the leading organizations nationally helping to blaze this trail, we need to reach more people in our area with this important message.

But our impact and reach has been constrained by modest resources.

The time has come for DWN to significantly increase the scope of our work to meet the growing demand. As a non-profit organization, we rely on people like you to make this possible, people who benefit directly from our services. Help us inspire, connect and guide people over 50 to their full potential. And blaze a trail for others who will follow in our footsteps.

Please donate generously today!
